SENATE AMENDMENT GOES THROUGH

Newspaper Men Allowed to Accept Mileage on Contract in Exchange for Advertising

Montgomery, Ala., March 9—The House passed the Senate amendment sent to it for concurrence allowing newspaper men to accept mileage as pay for advertising, on vote of 64 to 24.

This gives newspapers all they were asking for—the same right to make advertising contracts with the railroads, and accept mileage as payment of the contract.

Ask anyone who attended the Elite how they liked the show and if they are not going back tonight.

See the three star acts at the Elite tonight.

J. R. Potts, District Commercial Agent of the Western Union Telegraph Company was in Dothan today on business.

That dog at the Elite has human brains and can understand the English language. He plays an organ, smokes a pipe and drinks beer. Never mind where he gets it.

Ask the audience about the specials at the Elite last night. Three star acts, presented by three distinct star troupes for 10 and 20c.

Try a pound of that good writing paper with envelopes to match, at Strickland Brothers.

The pictures tonight at the Elite will be good.

"Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough remedy I ever used, as it quickly stopped a severe cough that had long troubled me," writes J. W. Kuha, Princeton, Nehr. Just so quickly and surely it acts in all cases of coughs, colds, lagrippe and lung trouble. Refuse substitutes. Sold by N. H. McCallum.

Biograph Comedy Drama at the Criterion today. See the program in this issue.

Don't believe what the show man tells you about it but ask the audience that attended last night, and then you will go to the Elite tonight and be convinced—10 and 20c.

A Cold, Lagrippe, then Pneumonia. It is too often the fatal sequence. Foley's Honey and Tar expels the cold, checks the lagrippe and prevents pneumonia. It is a prompt and reliable cough medicine that contains no narcotic. It is as safe for your children as yourself. Sold by N. H. McCallum.

The Valois Brothers at the Elite theatre are the cleverest pair of specialty men that ever appeared in Dothan and the best applause they have received was from the audience last night.

Y., are in Dothan today looking for a location for a large industry which will be opened here at a later date.

ROYAL Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is more economical at its price than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a dangerous mineral acid, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

The label of alum baking powders must show the ingredients.

It is a wonder the Senate didn't vote Lorimer a vote of condolence

We are told that the harem skirts have a good point for they are not dragging a train.

Governor O'Neal will hardly be able to satisfy Birmingham on that commission appointment.

Bally is glad that the country has telegraph wires, else his resignation might have been accepted.

The legislature will have no split session, but will finish the work before it within the fifty days or quit without it.

There is a Boston woman who says she can dress on $10 a week, but she fails to state where the two blank ets can be bought.

Edward Doty, of Andalusia, and old Charlie Greer, of Marion, pretend to be raising some fine hogs. We can tell what luck they have by watching their papers during the next few months.

The Socialist seems to be one when he gets enough money. Labor unions go out of business when they all make enough money. Politicians see the sufferings of the people in a different light once they are elected.

It is time for some rain to fall throughout the southern states. We have folks here who want to get some moisture in the ground, enough to sprout a grain of corn, and we have a few who would plant cotton if the signs were right.

It is reported that Ballinger has at last been released from his job. He goes down on record as holding on longer than any other man considering the demand for his resignation. President Taft regretted greatly to accept the resignation.

WHY COMPLAIN?

We see an article in the Commercial Appeal complaining that we have no poet laureate of America, and it seems to think that we are missing something worth while.

We had never thought about it that way. Most of us were of the opinion that we were extremely lucky to have no poets who might be termed the poet laureate of America. To bear this title might ruin the future of some otherwise useful man.

Having a good time all of our lives, as most of us have, we have never seriously missed poets.

It was a job to have to read the reports of Mrs. Drummond, who lost the $130,000 worth of jewels on an ocean liner, but now the papers have found a picture of the woman, and we must look at her, wearing the ropes of pearls.

If Greene and Gaynor don't get out of prison it really makes but little difference. When men have habituated themselves to prison life for four or five years, they ought to see about as good a time in there as if they were out walking the street, working the garden or going to the ball game.

There is a movement on foot to make Bailey's resignation effective. They have begun to cite precedents where men have resigned their seat in the Senate and couldn't recall it, for it matters not whether the governor accepts it or not, it being a job that can be resigned by the member.

According to the Birmingham Ledger a Texas subscriber sent the Talladega Home a pair of multi-colored, fourteen inches long, and called them rabbit ears. It is figured that in this pair of ears were from a rabbit, that he could jump from Texas to Talladega in four jumps.

THEY MET HIS TRAIN

The folks at home are the ones that count. We felt good, even for Lorimer when it was said that several thousands people turned out to meet his train when he went home.

It doesn't matter how many rounds the man climbs, it doesn't matter how high up he has written his name, if the people at home are not glad to see him when he comes back, his fame isn't lasting. It is the verdict of the home people.

A few years ago, when a Kansas senator went home disgraced, and his neighbors and friends didn't hold it against him, but turned out and greeted him, and extended the hand of sympathy, we felt that he wasn't all bad.

After all, it's what your neighbors think of you that count. You may live in the same town with a man for years, and see him on the streets daily, and if his conduct has been good before his people, they are hard to turn against him and believe reports against his character.

If a man lives so as to keep the respect of the people who know him best, among the people who see him week-a-days and Sundays, among those who see him in all moods, good and bad, then if he keeps the respect, he should be considered not a bad man.

We are glad that Lorimer had some friends to meet him at the train.

SOME POSTOFFICE DEFICITS

During the last few months much has been said about the proposed increase of the rates on magazines. The fight was first made on the newspapers and the magazines, but as the magazines had been doing a good deal of muck-raking more or less, the dogs were finally called off from the papers, and Mr. Hitchcock put them on the trail of the magazines. He had them up and doing, but the bill was finally defeated, after costing them thousands of dollars.

It has always been our idea that the postoffice department would stop many of the leaks, if it wouldn't do so much franking. The postoffice department alone, not paying for any of its mail to be transmitted, knocks a big hole in the expense of operating the postoffice department. It matters not what the job is, if it's a government job, the mail is carried free, and probably the stationery it is put on to that expense account.

The postoffice department goes out and enters the printing business in competition with the man who has to pay taxes and license. It not only urges the postoffice employees to get up all of the envelope printing they can but they send out expensive advertising to be distributed urging the public to patronize the government by buying envelopes printed with the business address.

Probably many people from this office received circulars from the postoffice department soliciting business in the envelope printing. It is said that something like 5,000 is sent out to offices of this size, and when you take into count over 6,250 presidential offices, or offices in Dothan's class, or above, that means that over 31,000,000 copies of the circular letter were distributed, to say nothing of the number sent the offices smaller than Dothan.

To have even put a one cent stamp on these circulars, including the envelope, the folding, and addressing, would have represented at least two cents, which would have made this lot of circulars cost $620,000, and this says nothing of the cost of printing. Putting the printing at the low rate of $2 a thousand, and that is low, then the cost of getting it out would have been over $600,000.

Suppose the private individual had wanted to reach the same number of people, and had tried it through the mails, it would have cost him nearly $1,125,000.

You take that $1,125,000, which is the amount that one batch of circulars would have cost the individual and apply it toward cutting down the deficit in the postoffice department, and you will hear but little then about making the newspapers and magazines pay more postage.

The above is only figured on the basis of something over 6,000 postoffice offices, while there are over 64,000 postoffices in the United States. It is but fair to say that other offices than presidential ones, receive their proportion of circulars, which would put the total amount to $3,000,000, provided, of course, that an individual or corporation would have pulled off this soliciting scheme.

These circulars go into every town in a hamlet where there are printing offices, and where there are none, soliciting business that the printer would get but for this.

The government is able to go out after it, because the postage is free, because, when the job is printed, that it is mailed over the United States, to any point and delivered free to the purchaser. No one else can do this.

And yet, congress kills time in trying to find out where the deficit comes from in the postoffice department.

None of us expect the postoffice department to pay expenses. It isn't supposed to, but it would if the free list, and the franking privileges were revoked, and make all pay alike.

MILL AND GIN BURN

NEAR ABBEVILLE

Sheriff B. O. Hay was called yesterday afternoon to Cummin's Mill place, about four miles above Abbeville, where Cummin's mill and gin had been burned the night before by some unknown party. The track dogs were taken and tracked the guilty party to a tree a few hundred feet away, where he mounted a mule. The mule was tracked a short distance up the road, but owing to the great amount of travel over the road the trail was lost.

The mill and gin were valued at $2,000, and no insurance was carried.

Lost Hog.—Black, 85 male hog, strayed from place last week. Reward for knowledge of him. E. H. Rogers.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this. Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid. WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash. A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

WHAT IS A MAN'S LIFE WORTH?

At first thought one is apt to say that it cannot be estimated for no man will surrender his life for a price.

But every man's life has an actual money value. Investigations have been going on for the past four hundred years which enable one to calculate the actual money value of a life.

Of course, this cannot be done on any particular individual, but the tables hold good for an average. For instance, these investigations show that the average number of years that men live after thirty is thirty-five and a third years. Therefore, if any man's earnings is multiplied by the number of years he must live, it is easy to determine the value of his life.

For example, a man of thirty earned $1,000 a year. His life is worth that sum which would pay to his estate that amount a year for thirty-five years if he should die. At four per cent interest the sum required is $18,000. How many men earning $1,000 carry one-fourth of this amount? The National Life Insurance Company of Vermont has been helping men provide for their families for over sixty-five years. It will help you. See L. G. Biggers, phone 428.

THE NEXT BEST THING.

Have you ever thought that you would care to marry a man with a title? he asked

Really, she replied, pretending to make light of it, I have never thought much about it.

Still, I supposed if a man with a title were to come along you would not treat him coldly merely because he happened to have a handle to his name.

Well, I have no doubt that there are some very good men who possess titles.

Let us suppose, for instance, that I had a title.

I can't imagine such a thing, but if such a thing could be?

I hardly know what you mean.

Why, if I had a title and came to you with a proposal of marriage, would you be disposed to listen to me kindly?

But you haven't any title, and you are never likely to have one.

You are mistaken. I have a title.

Silly! Why do you say that?

It's a fact. I've been appointed a colonel on the governor's staff.

I am serious. I'll show you my commission if you wish to see it.

Do you get a salary for being a colonel on the governor's staff?

No, but I have the right to wear a splendid uniform at public functions.

Oh, Harry! Did you really mean it when you proposed a moment ago?

Warning to Railroad Men

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad riding. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroad riding left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Sold by N. H. McCullum.
